MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: David A. Stockman DS

SUBJECT: Seventh Progress Report on the Implementation of Executive Order 12352, "Federal Procurement Reforms"

Attached is a copy of the seventh quarterly report on the Implementation of Executive Order 12352. You issued Executive Order 12352 on March 17, 1982. The Order requires that executive agencies and departments initiate specific procurement reforms to ensure effective and efficient spending of public funds. This reform activity is part of Reform '88 and the Administration's management improvement program. The attached report summarizes the actions taken by the agencies and departments during the period October 1 - December 31, 1983. The most significant achievements are as follows:

- o The Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) was distributed to executive agencies and departments on December 9.
- o Guidelines for 11 reform recommendations were sent to the heads of executive agencies and departments.
- o Executive agencies have made substantial progress in completing their FAR Supplements and finalizing plans to train their contracting personnel in the use of the FAR.
- o The enactment of Public law 98-191, "The Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act Amendments of 1983," made several features of Executive Order 12352 a legal responsibility for agency heads in the executive branch of Government.
